

Among the Sports

Jake Norris bagged the first Jack and Mr. Schnute the first duck of the season.

The Colts and the All Stars will do the war dance at Poteets park next Sunday afternoon.

This is the season when the hollow boom of the guns on the bottom land tell of the gay and festive mallard and the elusive "Jack."

A number of the local sports have leased the Keim & Towle lakes during the open season. Those who participate in the lease pay four dollars each for the season. Anyone not a member of the club will be prosecuted for hunting on the premises.

What's the matter with a local foot ball team? Thanksgiving without foot ball is about as hollow as Christmas without Santa Claus. We have an abundance of good material and have the best foot ball town in seven states.

The Nebraska foot ball team met with a surprise at Boulder, Col., Saturday. They expected to rout the free silverites without mercy but were humiliated by a score of 6 to 0 in favor of the Colorado team. The high altitude may have contributed to the defeat but the chances are that Nebraska is not as strong as has been believed.

Joseph Burns, the fish trapper who was fined ten dollars and given back his traps is still pursuing his illegal business. He takes his fish to Reserve, Kansas and ships them around the adjoining country. When Mr. Carter, the state game warden comes down, this fellow is going to be taught a lesson—and there are others.

And is Falls City a sporting town?. If it isn't it should be when it can boast of two base ball nines, as the game Sunday demonstrated. The line up was as follows:

- | | | |
|---------------|----|---------------|
| Fred Paxton | Pr | W. Sears |
| H Messler | Cr | J. McKiever |
| H. Foehlinger | SS | G. Holt |
| E. Gagnon | FB | B. McKiever |
| C. Foster | SB | G. Ruegge |
| F. Noah | TB | C. Cornell |
| H. Sanford | RF | J. Norris |
| H. Foehlinger | LF | J. Frenchy |
| B. Messler | CF | L. Sherbon |
| Umpires | | Clarence Heck |
| | | Will Kanobe |

It was a ten inning game, the score being 10 to 9.

Chas. Davis and Irvin Bode lost about seventy-five dollars two Omaha ball games. The only way left for them to get even is through the gate receipts of the remaining games to be played. We have had a summer of ball games of the best amateur teams in the state, and Messrs. Davis & Bode ought not to be compelled to pay for it. Let everybody attend the next game. We have all danced now let all of us pay the fiddler.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

"Though we have seen dozens and dozens of presidential campaigns, never before on memory was there one so void of interest to the people of this community; or at least one in which our people feel such little interest in the result."—Salem Index. The editor of this paper must have lived about as long as Henry G. Davis to have seen dozens and dozens of presidential campaigns. This is about as bad as Dr. Inskoop's statement "This is the worst spring I ever saw, and I have seen hundreds of them."

The usual services will be held at the Baptist church next Sunday 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. In the evening Rev. Selinger expects to repeat the address which he delivered recently with great acceptance at Lincoln, entitled "What the World Owes to Baptists." Tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. Miss Lena Spear, a returned missionary, will give an address. To all of these services the public is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Loucks and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Loucks will leave tomorrow for southern California where they will spend the winter. The trip is in the interest of Aaron's health. The Tribune joins their many friends in wishing a safe and pleasant journey.

America Frank, than whom there was no more popular young lady in Falls City in its day of small things, is visiting with her father M. A. Frank, and her many friends among the early residents of the town.

Just think of it! You can get The Tribune together with either McClures, Everybody's or Munseys magazine for $1.75 a year. Just twenty-five cents more than the other county papers cost alone.

All roads lead to the cider mill at the creamery building four blocks north of the Douglas mill. Everything new. Bring us your apples.

For a dollar you can get The Tribune and the Weekly Kansas City Star, the Weekly Atchison Globe or the Weekly State Journal for a year. Two big papers for less than the price of one.

Mrs. Ed Howe and daughter Matille of Idaho are the guests of M. A. Frank and family.

Just received a fine line of street hats at the Bon Ton Millinery store,

"The Little Homestead."

The blind infatuation which turns a wife from her fireside beside her loving young husband to go forth to misery and abuse with an unscrupulous scoundrel, brings about all the sorrow and happiness in the magnetic story told by "The Little Homestead," which will be the attraction at the Gehling for one night on Saturday Oct. 15.

All the repentance and remorse of a woman who has sinned once against her home, her husband and herself is shown in the simple character of the wife, who sees through her blinded eyes when too late to atone. The dying plea for forgiveness and the unselfish response of the husband, strike to the heart. The just retribution for his sins which fall upon the destroyer of the home, is a fitting climax to a malignant life. Throughout "The Little Homestead" is of intense interest and appeals to the finer sensibilities. The play is from the pen of W. B. Patton author of "The Minister's Son."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it.
